

There's a look in your eye
Says you're leaving tonight
Says you're leaving alright
There's a sound in your voice
And I know it's your choice
But you're leaving alright

I read what you wrote
And it brought me to tears
I wondered why you think
It confirmed my fears

I only have
What I have
When you're with me
There's more to lose
The more you move
From where you're with me

There's a look in your eyes
Says you're leaving tonight
Says you're leaving alright
And there's a sound in your voice
And I know it's your choice
But you're leaving alright

I read what you wrote
And it brought me to tears
And I wondered why you think
It confirmed my fears

I only have
What I have
When you're with me
There's more to lose
The more you move
From where you're with me

I only have
What I have
When you're with me
There's more to lose
The more you move
From where you're with me

There's a look in your eye
Says you're leaving tonight
Says you're leaving alright
And there's a sound in your voice
And I know it's your choice
But you're leaving alright
