

Barbarossa

Cubante

be my sons and daughters, be my kith and kin be my cannonfodder, be my second skin you are to die for, but i won't die for you you are blood confetti chucked for the chosen few

we hear the voice of god calling [calling]
we hear the fatherland calling [calling]
we hear the voice of god calling [calling]
we hear the fatherland calling [calling]

if you're hungry i'll starve you
if you're naked i'll strip you bare
if you're hungry i'll starve you
if you're naked i'll strip you bare

we hear the voice of god calling [calling]
we hear the fatherland calling [calling]
we hear the voice of god calling [calling]
we hear the fatherland calling [calling]

let's go to war, let's go to war
let's go to war, let's go to war

we hear the voice of god calling [calling]
we hear the fatherland calling [calling]
we hear the voice of god calling [calling]
we hear the fatherland calling [calling]
