

Cupid's Quiver

Cuco

Maybe, just maybe
I miss you, I miss you, girl
Maybe, just maybe
I need you, I need you here

Sundays on Mondays
I'll see you and calm you
'Till that guy with the money
With no heart, you still love him why

Drowning in the river where my heart was once a quiver
To the cupid in San Pedro by the high cliffs near your lover's building
Drowning in the river where my heart was once a quiver
To the cupid in San Pedro by the high cliffs near your lover's

Lost in dimensions
With no one to guide me
From the utopia to Europa
To Europe back to your place, dear

I'm at your front door
But I'm dead can't knock now, dear
Will you still open
To say bye, I miss you [?]

Drowning in the river where my heart was once a quiver
To the cupid in San Pedro by the high cliffs near your lover's
Drowning in the river where my heart was once a quiver
To the cupid in San Pedro by the high cliffs near your lover's
