Edith

Cuco

When you sleep, think of me
I'm comin' home soon
Do you see what I mean?
I wanna be with you

This is all I want to know
It's all because of you

Sing a soft lullaby
Before you say goodbye
Hold my heart for a while
Don't wanna see you cry

If I'm gone, I'll be back
I'm that someone that can love you
Won't be long, just know that
I'll be in your arms, I'll hold you

Baby, I wanna be with you
No matter what I do or I try
I wanna make you mine

Let's go out for a drive
As soon as I get home
Please be here when I need
I'll do the same for you

This is all I want to know
And it's all because of

This is all I want to know
And it's all because

Of you, of you, of you
Of you, of you, of you
Of you, of you, of you
Of you...
