

Hydrocodone

Cuco

I'm sitting in my room
I'm all alone now
Missing you, every single day
I wish you would say
Baby, I love you
Till I die
All my hopes are gone

The tainted paint that's on the wall
Crumbles and corrodes rumbling softly as it hits the floor
It's time to say goodbye
You said this would never end
Guess you played pretend but it's alright
I know I wasn't good enough
I showed you where it hurts and for what's it worth you made it worse
There's always someone better
I hope you find that guy to make you happy and meanwhile

I'm sitting in my room
I'm all alone now
Missing you, every single day
I wish you would say
Baby, I love you
Till I die
All my hopes are gone
