

Lost / Heart

Cuco

Help me, I'm looking for my heart again
Is it gone
I don't want to wake up to this again
In my mind

Say a thing or talk to me
But don't try to convince me I should stay
Figured that I'd best be gone
If I couldn't find a purpose with my ways

Don't apologize
Don't come and cry
You had your chances right
But instead you left me crying every night

Help me, I'm looking for my heart again
Is it gone
I don't want to wake up to this again
In my mind

Lost in my thoughts
Losing myself
The weight of pain has sunk me down the drain
Memories inside of me
The tears are running out
Swear I want to be alone
Until the day I die as of now

Help me, I'm looking for my heart again
Is it gone
I don't want to wake up to this again
In my mind

Help me I'm looking for my heart again
Is it gone?
I don't want to wake up to this again
In my mind

Help me I'm looking for my heart again
Is it gone?
I don't want to wake up to this again
In my mind

Never close to feeling comfortable
You find some peace of mind
Always left my heart at home
So close, but I found mine
But who knows
Maybe you and I
Will grow old in another life
