

Every single second by your side
Next to you in life, where I reside
Anyone can see the obvious with their own eyes
That you're special, special to me

I know it's always hard to get just what you want
Another day, another life, I need someone
Hold my hand, baby, don't let go
For the ocean will give us what we know

Our paths will cross some time after we die
(But I'll be everywhere that you may go)
So attached to you, I cannot lie
(Baby, I have to spend some time alone)
The aftermath of love and crying eyes
(I'm here my love, just follow all the signs)
And I'll be waiting for you here

Every single second by your side
Next to you in life, where I reside
Anyone can see the obvious with their own eyes
That you're special, special to me

I know it's always hard to get just what you want
Another day, another life, I need someone
Hold my hand, baby, don't let go
For the ocean will give us what we know

Our paths will cross some time after we die
(But I'll be everywhere that you may go)
So attached to you, I cannot lie
(Baby, I have to spend some time alone)
The aftermath of love and crying eyes

And I'll be waiting for you here
