

Alone

Cueshe

I'm lying here all alone
I wonder why you're leaving me now
Was thinking why I'm left behind
I am desperate, why we failed
And nothing left in me, I'm far behind

Every second I long for you
I need you here with me now

I find me in the road where there's no end
That's why I need you
I'm closing in the gap but I can't move ahead
I'm without you now

I'm seeking for you now
I hope when you'd come back home
I learn my mistakes
Will you come back home?

Every second I long for you
I need you here with me now

I find me in the road where there's no end
That's why I need you
I'm closing in the gap but I can't move ahead
I'm without you
I find me in the road where there's no end
That's why I need you
I'm closing in the gap but I can't move ahead
I'm without you now

Every second I long for you
I need you here with me now

I find me in the road where there's no end
That's why I need you
I'm closing in the gap but I can't move ahead
I'm without you
I find me in the road where there's no end
That's why I need you
I'm closing in the gap but I can't move ahead
I'm without you now
I'm without you now
I'm without you now
