

Broken Into Pieces

Cueshe

In this life we are livin'
Sometimes we cannot give in
How can we stay away from mending
These broken hearts and broken dreams
Did I tell you I'm sorry
Until now you can't forgive me
Regret the things I've said and done
I treated you bad

'Cause I love you
And I miss you all this time
And I'm sorry
For breaking your heart into pieces

I know I messed up everything
But let's save this love from ending
Those stupid lies and my mistakes
It's drivin' you mad and insane
How could you be strong enough to stay
I treated you bad

'Cause I love you
And I miss you all this time
And I'm sorry
For breaking your heart into pieces

'Cause I love you
And I miss you all this time
And I'm sorry
For breaking your heart

'Cause I love you
And I miss you all this time
And I'm sorry
For breaking your heart into pieces
