

Drift

Cueshe

I, I've had enough
Got to get out
It's time to go
I, I need it fast
I am a bomb about to explode

Runnin' away from you
I'm losing grip
I'm about to lose my mind
Now I'm leaving it all behind
Before I run out of time

I'm drifting away
Where my heart belongs
I'm drifting away
Till I find my way back home

No, nobody cares
Not a single soul when I disappear
When, will it pass me by?
This pain to hold crushing me till I die

Runnin' away from you
I'm losing grip
I'm about to lose my mind
Now I'm leaving it all behind
Before I run out of time

I'm drifting away
Where my heart belongs
I'm drifting away
Till I find my way back home

I, I've had enoguh
I am a bomb about to explode

Runnin' away from you
I'm losing grip
I'm running out time

I'm drifting away
Where my heart belongs
I'm drifting away
Till I find my way back home

I'm drifting away
Where my heart belongs
I'm drifting away
Till I find my way back home
