

Feeling only to you that I'm feeling
Like nothing to lose beating
My heart for you it's beating
A world without you, means an ending
But how did it all get to fading?
I'm losing you

'Cause I'm feeling, if this time
There is nothing wrong if we will try
Bring back those times again
Into the night

Stolen, everything all has been stolen
Where all seems to fail almost over
My heart to you has been pleading
Not to let go

'Cause I'm feeling, if this time
There is nothing wrong if we will try
Bring back those times again
Even stars to fade in the night
Into the night

'Cause I'm feeling, if this time
There is nothing wrong if we will try
Bring back those times again

'Cause I'm feeling, if this time
There is nothing wrong if we will try
Bring back those times again
Even stars to fade in the night
Into the night
Into the night
Into the night
