Cueshe

Life it seems so great but they all don't last
Seasons change so fast and we're catching up
There's nothing in this world that's bound to last

Clouded thoughts of memories are all I have
Living in between words can be so sad
There's nothing so great compared to what we have

I won't wait for tomorrow
Or living all back in the past
I'll hold on to what is real
To what we have

Come with me and we will sail away from here
Ask the oceans to drown all the pain within
There's so much love to share, a love so dear

I won't wait for tomorrow
Or living all back in the past
I'll hold on to what is real
To what we have
I won't wait for tomorrow
Or living all back in the past
I'll hold on to what is real
To what we have

I won't wait for tomorrow
Or living all back in the past
I'll hold on to what is real
To what we have
I won't wait for tomorrow
Or living all back in the past
I'll hold on to what is real
To what we have

Life it seems so great but they all don't last
I'll hold on to what is real to what we have
