

Still

Cueshe

There was in my head that I want to scream
So many things that I have seen
I feel all alone, I'm stuck in between

I have my flaws, I made some mistakes
It made me cry, I'm going insane
These words that are said, those things that I did

I still can't get you out of my mind
You should have never left me behind
I still can't get you out of my mind
Now that you're gone now I'm out of sight

I need you here, why can't you see?
We're meant to be now you and me
I want you here, I need you with me

I still can't get you out of my mind
You should have never left me behind
I still can't get you out of my mind
Now that you're gone now I'm out of life

If only I could turn back the time
I'll change those tears into smiles

I still can't get you out of my mind
You should have never left me behind
I still can't get you out of my mind
Now that you're gone now I'm out of life

I still can't get you out of my mind
You should have never left me behind
I still can't get you out of my mind
Now that you're gone now I'm out of sight
