

Something For Free

Cuff the Duke

What are you planning once you finally arrived
Well will you tell em when the time is right?
I'm worthy, I'm supposed to read your mind
We can work it out if we give it time

You're on your own so be sure
To make it matter when you finally choose
Don't tell me, don't tell me
All you're looking for is something for free
Don't tell me, don't tell me
All you really want has always been free

How can you argue when you haven't got a clue?
It is time consuming and you always lose
How did you end up on the other side?
How did you end up not getting this ride?

You're on your own so be sure
To make it matter when you finally choose
Don't tell me, don't tell me
All you're looking for is something for free
Don't tell me, don't tell me
All you really want has always been free

Don't tell me, don't tell me
All you're looking for is something for free
Don't tell me, don't tell me
All you really want has always been free
