

The Difference Between Us

Cuff the Duke

Holy ghosts and talk show hosts
Tell the story the story well
Tell the story well
This time
I'm just too lazy to finish my thoughts
So I close my eyes
So I don't have to watch
Myself slip away
It's like a day dream
I can't complain
I lose my mind on an airplane

Spread my ashes in the nearest town
On the windiest day
They won't hit the ground
I finished last on the coldest day
I break my heart every single day
Holy ghosts and talk show hosts
Tell the stories well
I can't complain
