Culcha Candela

You're no hero
So don't act like it
And please don't treat me
Like i'm yo sidekick
Cause I watch T.V
I see how life is
And it's not easy
But still I'm right here
Screamin'
I'm good, I'm good, I'm good, I'm good
Yeah
My nigga
I'm good, I'm good, I'm good, I'm good

You're no hero
So don't act like it
And please don't treat me
Like i'm yo sidekick
Cause I watch T.V
I see how life is
And it's not easy
But still I'm right here

Screamin'
I'm good, I'm good, Yeah
My nigga

I'm good, I'm good, Yeah

Coming up to me
Like "you still making music, man?"
Ask them kind questions
Shouldn't even shake your hand
Though you were the homie
Still don't know me
It's so ever damn
2 Million fucking views
And growing
Follow my accomplishments
I mean
Cause I do work my ass off
Back up in the game
Like my vocals got the cast off
All I've been is cast off
By those who seem to lack heart
Tryna give the world some hope
So through the dark
I'll cast art
Hoping life's the way
Brightens your yesterday
Life's been dark
And y'all can see I've had a lot to say
Few friends have been supportive
You can tell by how I word it
So being round that energy
I feel I can afford it
Talking bout I need direction

Samba where is yours
I've had mine
And it's the only thing
That I've been working toward
And I built it from the floor
Y'all don't seem to help no more

See it's hard to movement
Cause the internet's what opened door

What I mean to say
Is y'all ain't been about the dream
Even back in highschool
Y'all weren't really bout the team
To those who were
You know I know
And your support means everything
Bout to prove
Come from anywhere
And become anything
That you can take whatever you love
And make it everything
What part is bigger than us
We made it everything
And you know
It's because I wear my word
Like a wedding ring
Sticking to my cray
Put honesty above everything
Cause, I ain't been perfect
But at least I got a purpose

Rising stars in my contact list
We hit beats and we merk shit
Conversation with the greatest
Can't wait to say I made it
Shouts to those who say
I helped them get through hard times
You my favourite
Shouts to channels that upload me
And the haters that can blow me
And shouts out to a world
Insists of you won't seek control me

Blogs that show me love
And friends who love what we does
Everyone who sees us hitting the before it comes

You're no hero
So don't act like it
Cause I watch T.V
I see how life is
And it's not easy
Screamin' I'm good
