Who Got The Key

Culcha Candela

Who got the key to get out of this body Who got the key to get out this life Who got the key to get out of this body Who got the key to get out

I get bored of thisya life am living Every single day I repeat the same thing I want more action life and feeling Something new must begin Got to bring in motion and some variety Got to make up me mind cause it's deep like an ocean And no society could a ever enchain me Cause I be any thing that I intent to achieve And no one could ever invent this but me Am a creator of my own destiny On my way of breaking free

Who got the key to get out of this body Who got the key to get out this life Who got the key to get out of this body Who got the key to get out

Tell me where we go which way Jah jah can say Listen to your heart and pray And you know the way We are walking one way Help me now Do you hear what I say

Nod your head a chicken And release your brain Cause this is the way that we free our feeling We movin out of this money - made world Into a brighter day

So many question me want fi get done So many question fi di answer: one One love what we live one way we have gone One world one blood one mount zion One dream inna heart of each and every human Want peace and love and a bag of freedom Nobody lonely united we stand It's us holding the key in our hand

Who got the key to get out of this body Who got the key to get out this life Who got the key to get out of this body Who got the key to get out

Everyone is searching for love everyone We wanna feel alright There is only one solution one way You have to love your own life
