Back to Chapel Town

Cult of Luna

Floating over empty streets. Away from pain, away from everything.

Pray that we will survive the night. Buildings falling, the sou 1 vaporised.

Watching you sleep, but I know that your heart has grown cold. Let me dream if only for tonight, that we leave together in the first morning light.

Alone and forgotten. I bow my head in shame.

Before you all answers reveal. So I sink my sorrows in the sea.
