yes mi bredda winston rodney!
the boy we waan see long time christopher columbus, we catch him we hold him pon vibes

chorus:

they never want christopher columbus in a italy they never want christopher columbus in a rome so how come him down in a west indies land a bother we 2x

chorus...

how come in a west indies man a ravish my home how come the boy down to claim my home he came to the west indies land and saw us on the plantation, trying hard to work and support and feed our generation then he came and took out his sword and hold everything by by the jiffy of a word:thief!

then how come down here with boy three finger jack come kick out rastaman and west indians off the rock you think a so christopher, think we ago give up easily he came and start to feed the people again and not a word of justice could be said when i look, things upon the land start run red and the later generation african we affe turn natty dread chorus... (then tell i something)

a bother we 2x

came and rob us all our vote rape our sons and daughters at 9 years old straight after that we can't get no good times fe roll and our wild animals and our speech and culture is cold chorus...

a follow we

how come in a west indies land just a follow we and everything we working take it away from us chorus...
