But I'm crazy
Crazy
Crazy
Crazy for you

(Ay) Can't wait to put these eyes on-
Soon as I wake up, I'm firing on 'em
Let's me do anything I wanna, high honour
Her love such a high honour
Share without all of my trauma
She a vibe
Felt seen ever since she arrived
In a web of lies she is the prize
Realise, she is my world
I'm on my prince, diamonds and pearls
For working girl the earth twirls
And a whirlwind of likes and loves
I'm addicted and it like she the drug, and the plug
For all the power, all of her love and above
I shower her with every piece, cue the doves (cue the doves)
Pleasants, pains and all in between
Use everything to stay in the range (stay in her range)
Cause when she give praise to how I behave
Put me in the grave, I'm out with a bang

But I'm crazy
Crazy
Crazy
Crazy for you
Crazy
Crazy
Crazy
Crazy for you (yeah)
Baby for life

No need for kiss-and-tell, maybe just kissing tail
Soon penance for thoughts, deep as a mall wishing well
Let's pass 'em on down to our future children like sickle cell
Her vegan booty be clapping, I'm watching VeggieTales
So many midnight scrolls, I think I know her well
That ass stay on tap, baby, I'm drunk as hell
You shooting glances and, lady, I'm keeping every shell
I'm doing time in your line and never making bail
I love you down from your lace front to your pinkie nail
All in your OnlyFans, trying to be your only fan
I must be your type of man, tight, you need a wedding band
I thought a ring, you needed a drums and a mic stand
Her fiancé got a cousin, they cover slow jams
Stream the whole ceremony, standing on white sands
Next model, the rest follow, with more plans
To hold opinions with minions that never hold hands

(No, no) 'Cause you don't know that lady
(Low note) You don't know that lady
(Sure don't) You don't know that lady
(Low note) You don't know that lady
(Sure don't) You don't know that lady

(Low note) You don't know that lady
(Sure don't) You don't know that lady
(Low note)

Lost in your eyes, I really think you're the one
You take me so high, that we can walk on the sun
Push my buttons, so we can play all the games
'Cause long as we're the only ones, when nothing else remains

But I'm crazy
Crazy
Crazy
Crazy for you
Crazy
Crazy
Crazy for you
