Love, love, love, love, love
Ain't lovin' me, love, ain't lovin' me, love
Ain't lovin' me, love, ain't lovin' me, love
Ain't lovin' me, love, ain't lovin' me, love
Ain't lovin' me, love, ain't lovin' me

We could just be friends if you want
'Cause I'm really tired of putting up a front
You always gone, you ain't never at home
Got me lookin' for you like a egg hunt, wait
Maybe we just need space
If the time ain't shared, it's a waste, look
When you wanna taste, you would give me some face
But after that I really hate seein' yo face
Your phone on lock on the daily
Then you wanna play like I'm crazy
But you got some raggedy ass bitch on your page tryin' to make me jealous, b ut that shit don't phase me
So play your part, you actin' lazy
I'm not offended by no lady
Any bitch thinkin' that she took my man, I'ma take his ass back like The Eig hties
You can't erase me, nor replace me
And if y'all kiss then bitch you taste me
Don't need no nigga, so why make him chase me?
I do the dash on that nigga like Stacey (skrrt!)
You either want me or not, other niggas want what you got Hurry up you finna get blocked, thinkin' I'ma let it fly, you get swat
What if I did what you did?
Stepped out made a kid with another man, you'll be hot
What if I sent him pics to raise up his dick, make them sexy like Miracle Wa tts (watts!)
You wouldn't be flattered, you really would matter
Keep makin' me sadder, keep shakin' the ladder
You wanna go have her, my thoughts have been gathered Can't hold the sea in no more like weak bladder, aye

Dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled my heart up and down
Just like my bangles, yeah, just like my bangles, that nigga have been aroun d
Dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled my heart up and
down
You ain't playin' fair, so just like a fair, nigga, you 'bout to get clowned Dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled my heart up and
down
Just like my bangles, yeah, just like my bangles, that nigga have been aroun
Dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled my heart up and
down
You ain't playin' fair, so just like a fair, nigga, you 'bout to get clowned

1:30 A.M., where you at now? (what's up?)
You ain't ever been shit but a let down (shit!)
Wait, who the fuck is that in the background?
Let me pull up, get dragged like a prom gown
Why you gotta poke the bear to come out?

Only 'posed to make me cum in your mouth
Thought I had a rider, I'ma reroute
Stress 'bout to make me snatch my weave out
But I'm bitchin', friend's man told me to leave, sayin' he ain't what I need
, and it's true but I ain't listen (I'm stupid...)
Locksmith change these keys to my heart for the last time, need sumn differe nt (I'm done)
For once, I been with this nigga for months
And I'm already like fuck him, like he's some kin to that man Donald Trump
Let's get to the facts, you don't text back
Been messaging bitches but swear that you act
Then I'll take you back, then back to the flat
Said that I'm no help so I'll help you pack
Now you ain't gotta worry about me naggin'
I pull more niggas than a wagon
Better act like you know what's happenin'
Nigga you fired, like a, dragon, aye

Dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled then dangled my heart up and
down
Just like my bangles, yeah, just like my bangles, that nigga have been aroun
