This for the ladies, who keep getting hurt
Don't let him hurt you no more
Tell him like

Man, I never said love cost
Always wondered what you fucking thought
Lying and cheating but now you call?
Fuck you that yo loss

Always wondered what you fucking thought
Lying and cheating but now you call?
Fuck you that yo loss

What you good at?
Selling a love story that don't exist
Can't make me happy no more you make me pissed
Fucking and licking up on another bitch
Sending out dirty pics like you selling dick
Selling a love story that don't exist
Can't make me happy no more you make me pissed
Fucking and licking up on another bitch
Sending out dirty pics like you selling dick

Like a black cat at one o'clock in the morning
Snuck through your phone saw one text, "I'm horny"
For you to be my nigga that was real corny
But get some rest I'm on that ass in the morning
Fuck naw, I'm on that ass right now
When I want the dick you be way too high
Was you chilling with the bros or maybe that was a lie
Got bitches lurking on my page like a motherfucking spy
They thinking we a couple but ain't even got a title
They thinking we in love looking for rings and David bridal
Who you been fucking when I be up on my cycle?
That's when he start saying "baby you kind of psycho"
Nah, young nigga I'm the realist
When a woman love your demands can't feel it
Not getting love in return that'll put me in my feelings
I let you bust when you want when my knees be kneeling
You just PG-13 and I'm Rated R
Cause I thought I was the only bitch up in your heart
I'm tryna figure out the pieces, what you hiding in the dark?
Is you mad? Was you lying from the fucking start?
Sometimes you make me feel like I ain't shit
I hop up on Instagram uploading pics
But why I get up on your page seeing bitches that you laid
Comment call me baby I want the dick
And what happened to the roses? They stop coming in What happen to "I ain't pulling out I'm cuming in"?
What happen to the Louis Gucci, Prada, and the Fend?
I'm assuming another bitch got all that coming in
But it's cool, two can do the same nigga
You not a real nigga, you's a fucking lame nigga
This not no arcade stop it with the games nigga
I need an elephant dick become a pussy hitter

Man, I never said love cost

Always wondered what you fucking thought
Lying and cheating but now you call?
Fuck you that yo loss
I never said love cost

And it all start playing out in my head
At the strip clubs where you spend your bread
Only time you pop up is in my bed
You treat me like crap and you won't text back like you dead
That bitch sticking around for that paycheck
And you just sticking around for that late neck
Telling me lies when you look me in my eyes
And I'm knowing that you cheated and I hate that
But fuck it you can't say that bitch look better
And what's her name man, I hope it ain't Heather
And when you get up in my bed you said fuck what she said
Cause you like how my pussy get wetter
Do you think I'm trouble, trouble (I'm not)
Stop lying you ain't working no doubles
I know you whipped between her legs thinking about my head
And everything just become that struggle
Sometimes you got me feeling like I'm mental
When the truth is you just a fucking rental
You got a sweet tooth for every young thing that pass by
If you keep it up you might need dental
And do you think you can trust that bitch?
Knowing you a dopeboy, she a snitch
I held you down when you ain't have shit
What's funny is another bitch pop up when you rich
Do you think that's a good excuse now?
And do you dry my tears when I cry
You just a fucking hoe fucking a fucking hoe
Telling me and that bitch a whole bunch of lies

Man, I never said love cost
Always wondered what you fucking thought
Lying and cheating but now you call?
Fuck you that yo loss
I never said love cost
