After one heist is done, we plottin' up again
We shinin' in the sun because we worked in the rain
We ain't had shit, ain't going back again
To living like I did, will stay forever rich

My nigga, that's not your bitch, she's for the gang
You sitting on the bench, she want one who playing
What is you niggas saying? I'm on a flight
How much them fools paying? We land later tonight
Boy, ain't nobody waiting, my nigga, this your life
Gotta go and get your paper or watch it pass you by
My nigga, we major, this that Jet Life
Them other clowns hating and I know why

This is a one of one, no, we are not the same
After one heist is done, we plottin' up again
We shinin' in the sun because we worked in the rain
We ain't had shit, ain't going back again
To living like I did, will stay forever rich, nigga

Matching Rolexes

Once it is free of the screw threads, the crown is in winding position
To wind the watch, you turn the crown clockwise
To rapidly set the day and date on this watch, you move the crown out to the first notch

This is a one of one, no, we are not the same
After one heist is done, we plottin' up again
We shinin' in the sun because we worked in the rain
We ain't had shit, ain't going back again
To living like I did, will stay forever rich, nigga
