

Purchasing Power

Curren$y

Tabbly Falcone
Off the grid still living
Sending millions back home
Mansion on 'til it's gone
All I know 'cause I was born in a hustler's own
Rolling dolo but I'm not alone
Sloppy lyrics not how I got on Unorthodox delivery for which that I'm known
Skill level shown
When obstacles were thrown on the road
While rolling towards the goals
Thought it was only by getting stoned, you missed the methods
Within my lyrics encrypted lyrics on living better
Don't quit now, you just a heartbeat away from the cheddar
If this idea don't work out I bet the next one will catch up
Don't stress it, just keep stressing
The whole gang will eat once the recipe's perfected
Highway chase to the paper dog don't miss your exit
No capital letters

Just a heartbeat, just a heartbeat
Just a heartbeat away
Just a heartbeat, just a heartbeat
Just a heartbeat away

Saturday night live turn to easy Sunday morning
Wiping down my ride, just a heartbeat away from being outside
My low rider like city park [?] and slides
Gold spokes on my white-walled tires
Only got it 'cause I really tried
God used me as a example so I really shine
Niggas shades can't block it, brakes can't stop it
Haters tired to knock it 'cause [?]
In my box Chevy hopping
Niggas like fake Rollies in their houses tick-tocking
I'm measuring my patio
I'm finna order some new weatherproof couches
Shoot straight, never slouching
Started so many styles niggas copy me
And honestly don't really know where they got it
I'm a prophet, I'm a problem I got purchasing power
Hundred thousand dollar cars, I cop 'em not a thought about it

Just a heartbeat, just a heartbeat
Just a heartbeat away
Just a heartbeat, just a heartbeat
Just a heartbeat away

My joint went out
