

If you meet me at the RED BARN...

In the StraightWay hall
In the golden draw
Desire and the horsies are on fire
WatchTowers arise from sand
Bring in storms in and out
Then to death chariots arise as bone of Stars
For The Light Is Leaving Us All
So mind your slight back small and slack
The small birds float eyeless in the foam
As The Light Is Leaving Us All
And I hear hear BellRing boy
And immortal rain
And The Light Is Leaving Us All
On the flat planet the Light stands still Cain's at throat
And breathes in ForeHead
The sweeper sweeps on the road is cleared
And cleanly the cars pass by
The Light Is Leaving You All
By the TeleScope mountains
All fall down
TeleScope magicians
All fall down
At the seal of the real
All fall down
And Light your candles little dreamer
And all fall down
And the birds are sweetly singing
Boy and sound in the final change
Shepherd-your flock is close to edge
And the fragile birds soar and sing

So sweetly softly into the clouds
They burst the wind
With their gorgeous wings
In the RED CHURCH
The CockCrow rises
The ranks and the bars
And the high walls
Are made quite of Bright Light
Quite gone and late
The Light Leaves Us All
So call good Moon and all full soon
And The Light Is Leaving You All
At the end of your face
The focus is shot
The Light Is Leaving You All
By the sundered Sun
And the children and birds are softly singing
And the Stars are singing
The cattle are lowing
And The Light Is Leaving You All
In evening when the sky is RED
Fair weather-Matthew XVI: 2 then 3
Morning-the sky is RED

You see the signs in the Stars
But you cannot read the signs in the stars
And if a man blinds a man
His eye is blinded
If a man breaks the bone of another man
His bone is broken
If a man knocks out the tooth of another man
His tooth is knocked out
