

Comin' home

Current Swell

I been waitin' for the train to come and take me away
I can hear it round the corner it'll be here any day they say
I been waitin' for this train to come and take me all night
I been sleepin' in the station I been buskin for donation all r ight
Cause it don't matter where you're comin' from Don't matter where you roam
In the end its true my friend it won't be long and you'll be co
min' home

I been waitin' for this boat to finally reach the shore
I been sailin' through the night and I been fishin' off this oc ean floor
I been waitin' for this ship to finally port into bay
Cause I'm comin home to visit but I ain't comin' home to stay Cause it don't matter where you comin' from
Don't matter where you roam
In the end its true my friend it won't be long and you'll be co
min' home

I been gone for so long and I'm finally home
But I won't let it turn into my unescapable dome Cause I'm leavin' again my friend and it won't be long Don't bother missin' me my friend the day that I'm gone
Cause it don't matter where you comin' from
Don't matter where you roam
In the end its true my friend it won't be long and you'll be co
min' home

Thoughts of things done and seen
With all the time and all the pain it put me through But I'll go back to the places I've been
And I'll go to all the places I never knew
Cause it don't matter where you comin' from
Don't matter where you roam
In the end its true my friend it won't be long and you'll be co
min' home
