

Flesh and Bone

Current Swell

When I get off this plane onto solid ground
I'll pick my baby up, I'm never gonna put her down
The gift I sent for you, does it take away the pain?
Could a flower wake you up and tell you no one is the same as you?
I wanna go home, there's nothing like flesh and bone

The phone would ring and ring its hard for you to put it down
Our minds can tell us things, we're righteous and we're self-endowed
But selfish as I am, I hold myself awake
Watch you sleeping in the silence, I know no one is the same as you
I wanna go home, there's nothing like flesh and bone

Nothing like love, nothing like pain.
Nothing like love, nothing like pain.

When I get off this plane onto solid ground
When I realize that pain only strengthens bounds
And let it wash away what's left of who I am
Leave the life we had behind us I know no one is the same as you
I wanna go home, there's nothing like flesh and bone
I wanna go home, there's nothing like flesh and bone

Nothing like love, nothing like pain.
Nothing like love, nothing like pain.
Nothing like love, nothing like pain.
Nothing like love, nothing like pain.
Nothing like love, nothing like pain.
Nothing like love, nothing like pain.
