

I'm A Mess

Current Swell

I'm the fastest one you ever seen
I'm a millionaire, I'm richer than the queen
And I'm a heavy hitter, but never with a fist
Think about it, I'd probably be the first to miss

And I don't got a penny in the bank but I still got it all
A million people that I wanna thank, but I just never call
And I got ideas that I wanna do
All ideas and zero follow through

And I'm a mess
I need a breather
I do my best
Best to please ya

I got momentum, but I don't got the moves
I can write a sad song, but I don't got the blues
And I got my shit together half the time
Leave it last minute, then I'll tend to grind

And I'm a peacekeeper, people pleaser every day
Paint your sunset and only use the color grey
And I got ideas that I wanna do
All ideas and zero follow through

And I'm a mess
I need a breather
I do my best
Best to please ya

And I got my shit together, yeah only half the time
Leave it all last minute, and then I tend to grind

I'm a mess
I need a breather
I do my best
Best to please ya

I'm a mess
I need a breather
I do my best
Best to please ya

I'm a mess
I need a breather
I do my best
Best to please ya

'Cause I'm a mess
I need a breather
I do my best
Best to please ya
