

Unescapable Dome

Current Swell

Is it the snowflakes here in the winter time that keep ya home or the cold dry air that hurts to breathe on down your throat the icy roads and the snow molds that get yah col, Your home has turned, into an unescapable dome

Why's it so hard to leave you got no bills to pay got no reason to stay, now you're still livin' out your parents place anyway, doing the same thing that you have done everyday and you make it out to be so hard to leave, but you don't know, no no no and you will never find out until you go you wont know, till you go
your home has turned into an unescapable dome and you wont know now, no, you wont know until you go.
