

Wishing Well

Current Swell

Baby its gonna be a while,
A while until we meet again.
Because I'm leaving you in the morning,
When I'm back you leave me just the same.

Well lately our time's been a well, a well that never seen no r ain.

So luck is always in the fortune,
And time is never on our side.
When I finally get the chance to see you,
Its time to say goodbye.

Lately our time's been a well, a well that's been running dry

So the next time that I see you
I ain't never gonna let you go.
I said the next time that I hold you
I ain't never gonna let you go.

Cause if our time is a well, gonna fill that well till the well be full.
Cause if our time is a well, we'll fill it till the well is ful l, till the well be full.
