

Woman in White

Current Swell

She drank warm liquor
And cold coffee
And she loved dancing like a lunatic in the rain.

She stayed up all night
And she was never one to stop me
And she was never one to complain.
Ya different hearts and different minds.
Ya what we had was hard to find.

Chorus:

Our love was a crazy thing
More important than a wedding ring.
We were, never thinking, never hesitating
And if we got married it'd be a shotgun wedding
And it be BANG BANG!!

Woman in white

Just happened to be the dress she was wearing that night and it be BANG BANG!!

Our parents will never know
We did it for ourselves, we never did it for the show.

YA YA YA YA YA YA YA!!!

Several years past
And it happened so fast
It sure kept us on the run.
YA YA YA YA YA YA YA!!!

We never looked back
Or cared about the things we did when we were young.
YA YA YA YA YA YA YA!!!

Ya different hearts and different minds.
What we had was hard to find.

Chorus:

Our love was a crazy thing
More important than a wedding ring.
We were, never thinking, never hesitating
And if we got married it'd be a shotgun wedding
And it be BANG BANG!!

Woman in white

Just happened to be the dress she was wearing that night and it be BANG BANG!!

Our parents will never know
We did it for ourselves, we never did it for the show.

We did it for ourselves, we never did it for the show.

Chorus.
