

Can't Turn Back

currents

That's it for me
Abandoned every fear, now I'm on the attack
I'm running and I can't turn back
Everything was made clear when you showed your hand
I'm running and I can't turn back

Hit the floor
What the fuck do you take me for?
Hit the floor
What the fuck do you take me for?

Bow
Bow your head to this kingdom
Bow your head to this kingdom
Right here on the floor, you know how this will end
Once loved, I'm living a curse, the weight is on my back
A portrait of the things I lack Ever growing resentment
Compounded by the words you say just to save face

That's it for me
Abandoned every fear, now I'm on the attack
I'm running and I can't turn back
Everything was made clear when you showed your hand
I'm running and I can't turn back

Lies surround me
They infect my bones
No chance in giving up
Lies surround me
They infect my bones
Now fall head first

Hit the floor
What the fuck do you take me for?
Hit the floor
What the fuck do you take me for?

There's no love left in your eyes
None that I can see, at least none for me
I see right through the disguise
Mental vacancy, am I just prey?

And finally with a silent sting, my heart began to bleed
And finally with a silent sting, my heart began to bleed
And finally with a silent sting, my heart began to bleed
"Et tu, Brute?"

Death is our breaking point
Catechized my fate
I plugged it right into the vein
Now you challenge my faith
All while that blade is still glistening
Once at my back, now you lie to my face
And you know what the only difference is?
You think your season will change
But only winter still remains

But only winter still remains
