

Gone Astray

currents

I can see behind your eyes, like a window to your soul
I can see the doubt consuming from the outside in
If I can't get out of here, will you promise to be strong?
Find a way to stop our history from repeating

I can't shake this feeling
I see the signs that we've gone astray
So now we close our eyes
We'd rather die than face all our mistakes
There's no use concealing the writing on the wall
Tonight we dine in hell, so here we dwell

I'd be the first to say, "I'm sorry"
But there's no time left for remorse
Another relic frozen in a time I can't remember
You will not defeat me
This will be the night I take control
You will not defeat me
This will be the tale of my resolve

I can't shake this feeling
I see the signs that we've gone astray
So now we close our eyes
We'd rather die than face all our mistakes
There's no use concealing the writing on the wall
Tonight we dine in hell, so here we dwell

Tonight we will die
Bound together now
Tonight we will die
Bound together, we are forced to take the fall
Tonight we will die to recover the world

I can't shake this feeling
I see the signs that we've gone astray
I see the signs that we've gone astray
I can't shake this feeling
I see the signs that we've gone astray
So now we close our eyes, we'd rather die than face all our mistakes
There's no use concealing the writing on the wall
Tonight we dine in hell, so here we dwell
