

My Severance

currents

We are the numbered with one ambition
Erase the valleys that feed them, their wealth laid to waste
Bound to a judgment we will never get behind
Words of dissent will cast you out

Bought and sold to the hands of fate like cattle to the wolves
Cowering in silence while we cover the bones
Living every nightmare, going blind through the red
Our sorrow defines us while vultures assign our end

All along, it's always been this way
This way
Locked in isolation, thrown away
This is my severance

Hate breeds hate
Eradication of what we knew
Hate breeds hate
I have renounced my faith in you

Counting down to violence, breaking down in the weight of our ignorance
Cut their cords, defy their needs, bite the hand until it bleeds
Destruction of a fallacy
Erase the valleys that feed them, their wealth laid to waste

Would you burn your past, your only anchor?
Burn your past, your only anchor
Set it off
We will wipe the canvas blank
Reject all mistakes
When it's time to wash the debt
There'll be no price that can pay it

Bought and sold to the hands of fate like cattle to the wolves
Cowering in silence while we cover the bones
Living every nightmare, going blind through the red
Our sorrow defines us while vultures assign our end

All along, it's always been this way
This way
Locked in isolation, thrown away
This is my severance

All along, it's always been this way
Been this way
Locked in isolation, thrown away
This is my severance

Hate breeds hate
Eradication of what we knew
Hate breeds hate
I have renounced my faith in you
