

It's Gonna Hurt

Cursive

(You know it's gonna hurt)
(You know it's gonna hurt)

You know it's gonna hurt
But you do it anyway
If you know it's gonna hurt
Could you at least look away
Your trembling eyes betray your pain
You could never forgive me

You know it's gonna hurt
But there's nothing left to lose
You know it's gonna hurt
And you know it'll hurt me too
You said, "fuck this world"
You don't owe it shit
And most nights I agreed with you
I never thought you'd really do it

(You know it's gonna hurt)
(You know it's gonna hurt)

That crooked smile
A soft "fuck you"
You could never forgive me

If the lies they spewed turned up true
They said you knew what you were doing
I could never forgive you

You know it's gonna hurt
You know it's gonna hurt

You know it's gonna hurt
