

Smile

Curtis Grimes

I've seen wild flowers off highways
Seen the sunrisin' over the pines
And with pride I can say I love this state of mine
I've walked the beaches of Corpus
I've breathed in the hill country air
But when her cheeks start to lift a little, oh nothing else compares

'Cause, oh my God, the way the sun shines off her hair
Her eyes, oh her eyes, why I can't help but stare
'Cause I don't need to see anything else in this whole world
'Cause the only thing prettier than Texas is the smile of a Texas girl

I've counted stars in Plainview
Traveled many an old dirt road
But I can't seem to find one thing
More tender than a Tyler rose

'Cause, oh my God, the way the sun shines off her hair
Her eyes, oh her eyes, why I can't help but stare
'Cause I don't need to see anything else in this whole world
'Cause the only thing prettier than Texas is the smile of a Texas girl

She's breathtaking, oh yes she's fine
But most of all, she's mine

'Cause, oh my God, the way the sun shines off her hair
Her eyes, oh her eyes, why I can't help but stare
'Cause I don't need to see anything else in this whole world
'Cause the only thing prettier than Texas is the smile of a Texas girl
Yeah the only thing prettier than Texas is the smile of a Texas girl
Yeah, The smile of a Texas girl
