

Go as You Are

Curtis Harding

It's Wednesday night and I'm talking about leaving
I've been here a few times before
The only thing that I believe in
Is on the other side of the door

She said
Go as you are
But don't come back the same
If you don't get too far
You got no one to blame
No one

The lights are bright on the marquee
They flash green blue to red
I buy another round from the bar keep
And it's gone straight to my head

He said
Go as you are
Don't come back the same
If you don't get too far
You got no one to blame

Go as you are
Don't come back the same
If you don't get too far
You got no one to blame
No one to blame

Everyone's got a story
With no reason for all their rhyme
But for just a few pounds of glory
I can't justify all the time

But go as you are
Just don't come back the same
If you don't get too far
You got no one to blame
