

As Usual

Curtis Stigers

As usual, I'll be a little late
As usual, you'll pretend you didn't have to wait
As usual, we'll catch each other up
All the gossip and the news just like we do

As usual, you will make me laugh
As usual, we'll dance around the history we have
As usual, I'll stumble in the place
Where the past and present meet, so bittersweet

And soon you'll say, "I better run, I've got a lot to do"
To which I will reply, "Yeah, I do, too"

I do too, there's nothing new

And as usual, there'll be an awkward pause
Both of us so far away, a sentence trailing off
As usual, we'll hug and say goodbye
We'll walk away and we'll go on, as usual

And as usual, there'll be an awkward pause
Both of us so far away, a sentence trailing off
As usual, we'll hug and say goodbye
We'll walk away and we'll go on, as usual
