

Into Temptation

Curtis Stigers

You have opened up your door
I couldn't believe my look
You and your new blue dress
Taking away my breath
A cradle of soft and warm
It couldn't do me no harm
You are showing me how to give
Into temptation logging for wealthy earth will rebel
Into temptation I am a nervous words
Could never amount to be trail
Suns is all my own and the price to watch it fail
As I turn and go you looked at me for half of second
Open invitation for me to go into temptation
Logging for wealthy earth will rebel
Into temptation I am a nervous words
We can go sitting here cloud up
Losing your self into linger long
Into temptation right where you belong
The guilty get no sleep
In the last slow . of morning
Experience is cheap
I should have listen to the warning
But the cradle is soft and warm
Into temptation logging for wealthy earth will rebel
Into temptation I am a nervous words
Into your wild open arms no way the break the spell
Break the spell don't break the spell
Don't wanna break the spell
