

San Diego Serenade

Curtis Stigers

I never saw the morning till I stayed up all night
I never saw the sunshine till I turned out the light
I never saw my home town till I stayed away too long
I never heard the melody till I needed the song

I never saw the white line till I was leavin' you behind
I never knew I needed you till I was caught up in a bind
I never spoke I love you till I cursed you in vain
I never felt my heart strings until I nearly went insane

I never saw the East coast until I moved to the West
I never saw the moonlight till it shone off your breast
And I never saw your heart till someone tried to steal it away
I never saw your tears till they rolled down your face

I never saw the morning till I stayed up all night
I never saw the sunshine till you turned out your love light
I never saw my home town till I stayed away too long
I never heard the melody till I needed the song
