

Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus

Curve

Turn it up
Turn it down
Switch it on
Switch it off
Called a friend
Threw the phone
Cut me down
I'm lost
I retire
You resign
I win
You lose
Break it up
Break it down
Men are from Mars
Women are from Venus
Show me up
Drag you round
I smile
You frown
Never have I known
Such a liar
Such a liar
Such a liar
Men are from Mars
Women are from Venus
We won't be happy
'Til we kill each other
Men are from mars
It's the never ending stories
That will be our greatest glory
And our children will believe us
Because the know that we can teach trust
The point to living freely
Is to hope that we'll see clearly
And manage information
For the next generation
