

On the Wheel

Curve

On a treadmill, you cant get off.
You've tried and searched, but the feeling just wont stop.
So your on the freeway with your new best friends,
Who don't ask questions and you don't pretend

Easy life. I want an easy life

You met some girl, who hitched a lift.
Who sucked your dick before she split.
No questions asked. Just existing
The core of me Is all resisting.

Easy life. I want an easy life.
With easy girls. I want an easy girl.

I want nothing that's jagged or jarring,
I want an easy life with no commitment.
No one to hit me, no one can hurt me.
I am iron I am steel. Nothing can break me when I'm on the wheel.
l.

I'm on the wheel. I'm on the wheel.

No questions asked. Just existing.
The core of me Is all resisting.
I am iron I am steel.
Nothing can touch me when I'm on the wheel.

I'm on the wheel. I'm on the wheel.

Nothing can break me when I'm on the wheel.
Nothing can touch me when I'm on the wheel.
