

Sinner

Curve

All good things will come To the faint of heart With patience rewarded
Just say what you mean And I might forgive In God's good service

I'm the fool You're the winner I'm the fool You're the sinner

It's the last goodbye In beautiful peace Safe and ordered

I'm the fool You're the winner I'm the fool You're the sinner

What goes up Must come down All that swims Can also drown

All the beautiful men...

I'm the fool You're the winner I'm the fool You're the sinner
