

Sweetback

Curve

A single sound
Has changed me forever
It's the sound of your love
I never thought
That I would be that lucky
To behold your trust

If I were to die
At this very moment
I'd be happy enough
Let fate decide
If our future's going
As high as the sky above

Then I'll be
Happy in love
I'll be strong and tough
I'll be sad enough
I'll be dirty and rough

It's a lonely world
When the spell is broken
To the beat of your love

If I were to die
At this very moment
I'd be happy enough
Let fate decide
If our future's going
As high as the sky above

Then I'll be
Happy in love
I'll be strong and tough
I'll be sad enough
I'll be dirty and rough
