

Rain

Cut Copy

Rain is coming down
And that is when the feeling comes
Rain-rain is coming down
And all my wounds are bleeding out

Blue-blue out of the sky
A perfect hue to say goodbye
You-you can only try
To take the reigns but fate decides

I'll be hoping
You give back what I've given you
I can see the truth
You give back what I've given you
