

Coward's Confidence

Cut Worms

Well lately I don't know
If I'm in a lake of fire or a drift of snow
Some yesterday well I made all my plans and they
They ain't worked out yet but I can't complain
'Cause I've got a girl so fine
She smiles so serene
I know when I look at her this life is just a dream

Yeah and we made up our minds
That's how we know everything'll be fine
We just got to have what we've never known
Ride to the sun, no, we'll never be alone
And now if anyone of you
Got something to say
Come on and just a-step right up
My girl will put you away
Now I know where it is I've got to go
Now I know in my heart a man's got to roll
But now our love, oh Lord, it's strong enough
Well now nothing can hold us
