

Like Going Down Sideways

Cut Worms

Don't think I can take it
Say your goodbyes 'cause where are you now
When I go to market
See the long girls with the wavy hair
With the lights in the road, child
In the wormhole of your mind
In the black water fading
You got no chance, doll, no chance at all

I'm not gonna tell you where I been Seems no one let's their true love in

When my heart tells me (oh oh oh oh)
Too long's gone and passed away
Then I'll be another
Condemned man, refused to pray

You never had a dream
You never had a love, it seems
You never had a dream
You never had a love, it seems
You never had a dream
You never had a love, it seems

Go on tell me a story
Of old rage and stolen glory
When the night's an arm away
Too long and the weight is gone
From the treetops of hell
On the night, when in the laugh and gale
And you won't remember
Not me, no not my name

If I could tell you something
I'd tell you true
My life was over
My life was new
