

12 Steps

Cxloe

You didn't come with a warning
I was the fight or flight
Leaving your lips in the morning
Needing them every night

Oh what a dream just to be here
Lie, what a lie, what a lie
Hands on the wheel but I can't steer
That's what I like, what I like

So wrong but we... till it feels right
So wrong but we... till it feels like
You didn't come with a warning
That's what I like, what I like

I get drunk but I got no problem
Get high but I'm never rock bottom
Bad habits, wouldn't say I gotta have it
But I'm always twelve steps from your doorstep
Spend money but I ain't that reckless
Little skinny but I don't skip breakfast
Bad habits, wouldn't say I'm an addict
But I'm always twelve steps from your doorstep

I'm giving up, tryna quit it
I put my faith in you
The first thing to do is admit it
The last thing I usually do
Yeah

So wrong but we... till it feels right
So wrong but we... till it feels like
You didn't come with a warning
That's what I like, what I like

I get drunk but I got no problem
Get high but I'm never rock bottom
Bad habits, wouldn't say I gotta have it
But I'm always twelve steps from your doorstep
Spend money but I ain't that reckless
Little skinny but I don't skip breakfast
Bad habits, wouldn't say I'm an addict
But I'm always twelve steps from your doorstep

But I'm always twelve steps from your doorstep

I can't sleep if I don't have white noise
Work late but it's all by my choice
Bad habits, wouldn't say I'm an addict
But I'm always twelve steps from your doorstep

I get drunk but I got no problem
Get high but I'm never rock bottom
Bad habits, wouldn't say I gotta have it
But I'm always twelve steps from your doorstep
Spend money but I ain't that reckless
Little skinny but I don't skip breakfast

Bad habits, wouldn't say I'm an addict
But I'm always twelve steps from your doorstep

So wrong but we... till it feels right
So wrong but we... till it feels like
So wrong but we... till it feels right
Always twelve steps from your doorstep
