

Cheating On Myself

Cxloe

I can't tell
Was it really worth all the hurt and hell
Realized I've been wasting all my time on someone else
Cheating on myself
Cheating on myself

Yes man, how'd I go and turn into a yes-man
Showing up for everybody else, yeah
Only way I've ever know
24 everyone around me always needing more
Now I still get uncomfortable on the dance floor
I swore I would let it

Could have been the one
Middle fingers up
Oh, my god, what have I done

I can't tell
Was it really worth all the hurt and hell
Realized I've been wasting all my time on someone else
Cheating on myself
Cheating on myself

I can't tell
Was it really worth all the lonely night
Feels like I've been wasting all my life on someone else
Cheating on myself
Cheating on myself

Alone
Lately I've been going through my own phone
No one ever ever noticed I was so low
Lying with a happy face

Could have been the one
Middle fingers up
Oh, my god, what have I done

I can't tell
Was it really worth all the hurt and hell
Realized I've been wasting all my time on someone else
Cheating on myself
Cheating on myself

I can't tell
Was it really worth all the lonely night
Feels like I've been wasting all my life on someone else
Cheating on myself
Cheating on myself
