

Heavy

Cxloe

If your love is like rocks then my pocket is full of stones
You never believe that I'm alone
Look at you and tell you
You're the one I'm dreaming of
But even when I do you think I don't

It seems like
I'm never doing enough
'Cause I just don't know what you want
Oh, we fight
It's not that I don't care as much
But you just keep bringing it up

Why's it always gotta be so heavy?
Always something wrong we use to be so easy
Tell me if I'm wrong but haven't we got so heavy?
Can't you see I'm trying but you just don't, just won't let me
We got so heavy

Used to be my anchor, now your anger's all on me
But I let go of shit that ain't that deep
It's four in the morning and you're still there in your corner
There's more than just a table in between

Seems like
I'm never doing enough
'Cause I just don't know what you want
Oh, we fight
It's not that I don't care as much
But you just keep bringing it up

Why's it always gotta be so heavy?
Always something wrong we use to be so easy
Tell me if I'm wrong but haven't we got so heavy?
Can't you see I'm trying but you just don't, just won't let me
We got so heavy

Heavy
Tell me when we got so heavy

Seems like
I'm never doing enough
'Cause I just don't know what you want
Oh, we fight
It's not that I don't care as much
But you just keep bringing it up

Why's it always gotta be so heavy?
Always something, wrong we use to be so easy
Tell me if I'm wrong but haven't we got so heavy?
Can't you see I'm trying but you just don't, just won't let me
We got so heavy

Heavy
Tell me when we got so heavy
Heavy
Heavy

Tell me when we got so heavy
Heavy
